Medallion Legal Assistance Service

Improved Service

As a member of the Mutuelle d'assurance en Église (MAE), you can benefit from a free legal protection insurance that is adapted to your needs. It includes the following services:

- > Telephone legal assistance;
- > Extended legal assistance;
- > Legal expense insurance.

Telephone Legal Assistance

The telephone legal assistance service allows you to talk with a lawyer who will answer your legal questions. The service is offered by an experienced team of bilingual lawyers.

The number and length of calls are unlimited. You can call as often as needed, whether it is to obtain legal information of a preventative nature or to get help in the case of litigation.

We also add value to the service by adding the following legal protections:

Extended Legal Assistance

As well as offering telephone legal assistance, our lawyers can offer additional help by providing the following services:

- > Review of documents and contracts up to five (5) pages in length;¹
- > Writing of letters to third parties;¹
- > Assistance for calls to third parties;¹
- > Negotiation with third parties or their representatives to reach a settlement.²

¹ Limited to four (4) per insurance period

² Limited to four (4) hours per insurance period

Legal Expense Insurance

In case of a civil or administrative dispute involving the organization, you can retain the services of the lawyer of your choice and decide on the strategy you would like to adopt. However, this protection is subject to certain limits and conditions.

Before undertaking any steps and incurring expenses, you can validate with the legal assistance service the fees or charges that can be covered.
